

AUTO TRUCK CRUSHES BOY'S LEG AS HE FALLS IN STEALING A RIDE

Driver Hurries Victim, Dying, to Hospital—Another Lad
Killed in Brooklyn

Driving an automobile truck through West Thirty-seventh street last night Henry Webb, a chauffeur of No. 322 Grand Avenue, Brooklyn, passed a faint scream and felt a jolt of the car. He stopped, and under the rear wheel found the bleeding form of a small boy.

Webb hurried with the unconscious child in his arms to the French Hospital, No. 40 West Thirty-fourth street, where he was told that children were not received as patients. He then took the boy to St. Mary's Hospital, across the street, where the doctors found that he had internal injuries and fractured legs. He is expected to die.

The boy was identified as William Mitchell, seven, of No. 165 West Thirty-seventh street. Witnesses told the police that the boy had attempted to hang on the side of the truck and fell under the wheel. Webb was not arrested.

Edward Plouth, eight, No. 179 Euclid Avenue, Brooklyn, died last night in the Bradford Street Hospital, after being run over by an automobile as he skated from the rear end of a wagon to the side of Ridgewood Avenue, near Euclid Avenue. The car was operated by Thomas Summers, driver for Mrs. Gertrude Michol of Broadway and New Street, Far Rockaway, who with her daughter Anita, eighteen, was a passenger. The police said the accident was unavoidable and did not hold Summers.

It Ruins Hair to Wash It With Soap

Soap should be used very sparingly, if at all, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary unscented coconut oil which is pure and greaseless, and is better than soap or anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get unscented coconut oil at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.—Advt.
